

by Bill Crews

concluded from page 273303

“short”), but when men and boys have longer hair than women, and women and girls have shorter hair than men, we have erased a distinction that God’s word wants maintained. Back in the 1960’s and 70’s preachers all over the land scolded the boys about their long hair, using this very passage, but we have inconsistently remained silent as the women sheared theirs off until shorter than men.

I know that this has been a very long article, but these passages need to be emphasized, and I thought it best to quote them in full. More teaching and study needs to be done on these matters. And remember, man cannot make right what God has declared to be wrong, and man cannot make wrong what God has declared to be right. Why should anyone want to try it?

273304