4. Don't Listen To The Critics. Just Get The Job Done.

Undoubtedly, Noah was the laughing stock of the world who watched him slowly, deliberately build an ark for the saving of his household. Nobody else believed a flood was coming. Nobody else prepared like Noah. But Noah's faith was in God, not in men. "By faith Noah, being divinely warned of things not yet seen, moved with godly fear, prepared an ark for the saving of his household, by which he condemned the world and became heir of the righteousness which is according to faith" (Heb. 11:7).

5. No Matter The Storm, When You Are With God, There's Always A Rainbow Waiting.

God loved the world in Noah's day. He loves the people of this world today. The problem isn't with God, but with mankind! A righteous God will one day punish ungodly men (2 Pet. 3:7), even if it breaks His heart. The righteous few will once again live to see an eternal rainbow! Rev. 21:18-21
