pleasing to Him” (John 8:29).

“Though He was a Son, yet learned obedience by the things which He suffered” (Hebrews 5:8).

Jesus Came To Teach The Father’s Will

Jesus also came to teach the Father’s will, that is, to deliver to men the things that the Father wants men to know, to believe and to do. So He came to teach God’s will for us.

“Jesus therefore answered them, and said, ‘My teaching is not Mine, but His that sent Me’” (John 7: 16).

“Jesus therefore said, ‘When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am He, and that I do nothing of Myself, but as the Father taught Me, I speak these things’” (John 8:28).

“For I spake not from Myself; but the Father that sent Me, He hath given Me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak” (John 12:49).

“Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in Me? The words that I say unto you I speak not from Myself: but the Father abiding in Me doeth His works” (John 14:10).

Our responsibility is clearly to hear, understand, believe and do the words of the Father that Jesus has taught us. He is our Teacher; we are to be His disciples. Read Matthew 7:21, 24-27; Luke 6:46; John 8:31-32, 46-47.

“And having been made perfect, He became unto all them that obey Him the author of eternal salvation” (Hebrews 5:9).
