

Which Act of Worship is Most Important? {concluded}

by Wayne Goff

Continued from page 331602

love and devotion to God. Is this act of worship less important than the Lord's Supper?

Conclusion

After all is said and done, and after a brief survey of the biblical commands of public worship is done, we must conclude that every act of worship is equally important, though each act serves a different purpose in our hearts and lives.

It is a bit thoughtless to suggest that one act of worship is superior to another when God has not so taught us. In a kinder vein, I think I know what past worshipers meant to convey by their words. Since our salvation depends totally on the love of God, the grace found in the sacrifice of Jesus Christ, and the ransom paid for us by God, any time we stop to reflect, meditate and offer gratitude for that unspeakable gift, it is a wonderful act of worship!

Everything that we do from the heart, in obedience to a command from God, in public worship is very important and should be offered with all the fervency that we can muster. Whatever we do therefore, let us do it with all our might and strength. Only then do we show the full appreciation for the grace of God which brought salvation down to man!

The Resurrection of Christ

by David Padfield

“But when they looked up, they saw that the stone had been rolled away — for it was very large. And entering the tomb, they saw a young man clothed in a long white robe sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed. But he said to them, ‘Do not be alarmed. You seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He is risen! He is not here. See the place where they laid Him.’” (Mark 16:4-6)

Foretold In The Old Testament

(Psalm 16:8-11; Acts 2:25-26)

Promised By Jesus

(John 2:19; John 11:25)

It Defeated Satan

(Genesis 3:15; Acts 2:24)

Witnessed By Over 500 Brethren

(1 Corinthians 15:5)

It Is The Foundation Of The Gospel

(1 Corinthians 15:3-4)

It Is The Basis For Our Hope

(1 Corinthians 15:12-19)

Memorials To The Resurrection:

The Lord's Supper (Matt. 26:26-29)

Worship on the Lord's Day (Acts 20:7)

Baptism In Water (Rom. 6:1-6, 17)