

Ten Facts of Life

dedicated to our Graduates

- 1. Prosperity cannot arise and flourish where thrift is discouraged.
- 2. The weak cannot be strengthened by weakening the strong.
- 3. Small men cannot be made into big men by reducing men who have become big.
- 4. The poor cannot be permanently enriched by robbing the well-to-do.
- 5. The wage-earner cannot be lifted up by pressing down the wage-payer.
- 6. No one can keep out of trouble if he spends more than he earns.
- 7. Unity and fraternity cannot be promoted by inciting hatred among men.
- 8. There can be no sound security on borrowed money.
- 9. Character and ability cannot be built by taking away a man's initiative and independence.
- 10. Men cannot be helped permanently by doing things for them which they can and should do themselves.

332001