

Breaking Somebody's Heart

by Bill Crews

continued from page 364602

I beseech you by the mercies of God to come back before it is forever too late, before you succeed in breaking your own hearts. You can still bring joy to your earthly parents and joy to your heavenly Father, His Son and His angels (Luke 15:7, 10). There are brethren who will rejoice with you, and you can start living again.

364604