by selected

There's a town called "Don't-You-Worry," On the banks of River Smile; Where the Cheer-Up and Be-Happy Blossom sweetly all the while. Where the never-Grumble flower Blooms beside the fragrant Try, And the Neer-Give-Up and Patience Point their faces to the sky. In the valley of Contentment, In the province of I-Will, You will find this lovely city. There are thoroughfares delightful At the foot of No-Fret Hill. In this very charming town, And on every hand are shade trees Named the Very-Seldom-Frown Rustic benches quite enticing You'll find scattered here and there; And to each vine is clinging Called the Frequent-Earnest-Prayer. Everybody is happy, And is singing all the while. In the town of Don't-You-Worry, on the banks of River-Smile.

Editor's Note: Proverbs 23:7 says "For as he thinks in his heart, so is he..." Jesus Christ taught us that "For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies. These are the things which defile a man..." (Matt. 15:19-20). So I guess the point of this little poem is that if you think good things then you will say and do good things. Why not try that out? Who doesn't want to be better?

260501