

Thoughts To Consider

by Wayne Goff

When the apostle John wrote that he was “in the Spirit on the Lord’s Day” (Rev. 1:10) I believe he was teaching us something. Sunday, the first day of the week, is the Lord’s! Man has crowded out God from his “weekend”(?) with work, travel, recreation, and sports. Now brethren want to be finished with their worship on the Lord’s Day at noon! — No, it’s not sinful to meet once on Sunday, or three times in the morning; sometimes circumstances require churches to ease the burden of travel on their brethren. — But when it is done out of convenience, then it becomes sinful. John didn’t say, “I was in the Spirit on the Lord’s Day . . . until Noon”!
