- Because it is hot — it is not as hot as it will be one day, 2 Peter 3:10-11
- Because it is cold — it is warm and friendly in our worship.
- Because no one invited you — you go to the movies and ball games without an invitation.
- Because you have little children — you have a responsibility toward them to do this very thing, Ephesians 6:4
- Because you don't like the preacher or your child's Bible class teacher — they are human just like you.
- Because your job makes you tired — you could lose it.
- Because there are hypocrites in the church — you are with them every day.
- Because you have company — our services are open to the public; bring them with you.
- Because your clothes are not good enough — we are not conducting a fashion show, James 2:1-3.
- Because you have plenty of time for religion later — are you absolutely sure about that? Luke 12:20; James 4:13-14
